

Everyone Invited!

Family Matters: Lessons in Loving Ourselves and One Another August 10-12

The Reverend Dr. Hunter Hay, pastor of Community Church in Greenvale, Tennessee is coming to help us understand healthiness in our relationships. Hunter's degree is focused in pastoral care and counseling.

Single or married. Parents or children. Grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins. Even relationships within our church "families." Everyone in our community will benefit from this time.

One cannot over emphasize the importance of these lessons. Please make this investment in your personal and family life. All sessions are free.

Friday August 10, 7:00 - 8:00 p.m.
How Does My Family Work?

Saturday, August 11, 9:00 - 9:45 a.m.
Does Your Family Make You Nervous?
Choosing to Be Healthy in the Mix of Family Drama.

BREAK

10:00 - 10:45 a.m.
You're Not Being Selfish! Staying Connected in the Midst of Family Drama.

BREAK

11:00 - 11:45 a.m.
How Close is Close Enough?
Honoring Boundaries Within the Family.

Sunday, August 12, 9:45 - 10:30 a.m.
Don't Run Off!
Conversations You Need to Have with Your Family.

11:00 a.m.: Dr. Hay preaching in Morning Worship
"Who is the Problem?"

All Sessions Held at Pfafftown Christian Church
3323 Transou Road
For more information, call 336 924-9925
A Nursery is Provided for All Sessions

